

Call for Peer Reviewers for Women and Birth

Women and Birth continues to strengthen its position as an International Midwifery Journal. As part of growth and renewal we wish to grow our Peer Reviewer panel. The new peer reviewers would be in addition to the existing peer reviewers.

Applications that address the following selection criteria are invited for position of Reviewers.

Selection criteria:

1. Geographical location (we want diversity across Australia and the world)
2. PhD, doctorate or near completion of either
3. At least 3 refereed publications in journals in the past 3 years
4. Ability and commitment to soliciting high quality articles for the journal
5. Level of activity and commitment to midwifery and maternity services
7. Research expertise, either qualitative or quantitative
8. Expertise in areas relevant to midwifery practice

Applications should address these criteria and be forwarded by email to a.chai@elsevier.com by April 30th 2013.

Enquiries may be made direct to the editor Kathleen.Fahy@newcastle.edu.au or Ph +61 2 4921 5966.
